

"I lived in a terraced house with my parents when I started.

I still run around in a van with 250,000 miles on the clock.

I've dedicated my life to my dogs.

If I can do it on a small budget and still compete with the best ...

....you've got to use your knock backs - whatever they are - to your advantage.

Handling is such an objective thing.

Your ambition will see you through."

(David Latham, winner of three IGL Retriever Championships and next captain of the CLA GF England team, in an interview with Martin Puddifer in July's Shooting Gazette)